19-year-old singer-songwriter/producer Jack Critchlow releases latest Pop single 'Taste Of You'. Weaving elements of Funk and Pop, Jack creates his own unique style of funky pop that offers easy listening and great live performances.

'Taste Of You' is no different, a vibrant pop track that centres around the insecurities people have in relationships and how that can sometimes get in the way. The track offers an upbeat feel with its slick production and an anthemic chorus that showcases Jack Critchlow's ability for writing catchy relatable tracks that can grip listeners' attention.

Jack expands on the track further "The track is about trying to overcome insecurities and not worry about the future, while not taking for granted what you have."

Born and raised in North Yorkshire, Jack now resides in Manchester while completing his degree at the Royal Northern College of Music. Bursting onto the scene in 2022 Jack has garnered support from the likes of BBC Introducing and Line of Best Fit along with gigging extensively throughout Manchester and London with upcoming shows including a live stream performance on Scruff Of The Neck TV (6th Feb), and shows in London and Manchester on the 2nd and 24th of March respectively.

With the release of his latest single 'Taste Of You', a busy gig calendar and the promise of new music, 2023 looks to be the year where Jack Critchlow continues to expand his ever-growing audience.
